

WARD NICHOLS

Ward Nichols is an interpretive realist with a rare versatility and an intense personal insight that transforms the commonplace into a visual world of his own creation. His unique technique and clarity of detail, combined with his enthusiasm, artistic awareness and knowledge of subject, presents a visual interpretation that has earned him national and international recognition. He is represented in numerous private and corporate collections, as well as the permanent collections of museums here in North Carolina, the Southeast, the US, and abroad. His work has been seen in over 200 exhibits in 22 states and in 26 national and international group shows. He is the recipient of over 30 major awards and he has 3 Artist-in-residencies.
